At New York, yesterday, money on call was easy at 508 per cent.; last loan, 5c. Prime mercantile paper, 6@9 per cent. Sterling exchange was dull, with actual

The stock market yesterday was dominated by a variety of conclusions and conjectures over the action of the administration in resorting to a popular loan as a measure of relief to the Treasury Department. Wall street, almost to a man, had regarded an arrangement with Mr. Morgan and his associates as a foregone conclusion, and official intelligence from Washington giving the loan to the syndicate was considered to be merely a question of a day or two at the furthest. The actual developments so sud-denly announced had a decided unsettling effect and the unfavorable influence was lent force by special considerations bearing on various stocks. The most discouraging deduction drawn by the financial the prevailing unrest. Already rumors of a distressing character have been circulattheir balances to their New York correing-house loan certificates, but the obliga-

community from the popular loan plan, reof view, is that the delay entailed thereunder may cause acute disturbance in the money market and temporarily aggravate ed. It is alleged that out-of-town banks have been recently very slow in remitting spondents. Bank Examiner Kimball authorzed the denial of any and all rumors respecting any New York institutions. Two small up-town banks had recently, on account of slow collections, been afforded some assistance without the issue of cleartions had been substantially made good. Rumors of probable "trouble" among the brokerage houses were also passed around after the close of business, but no confirmation was obtainable. Money on call was firmer during the day, but loans at above the legal rate were exceptional. It was stated that $1,500,000 in gold, which had been ordered for shipment recently, but withheld, would be sent out on Wednesday's steamer, and the impression prevailed that considernow go forward. No engagements were reported. Reports of a conference of the members on the subject could not be traced to any responsible source. Talk of probable proceedings to enjoin the New Jersey Central directors from paying the dividend deyesterday was said to be the main cause of depression in the coalers, while reductions in refined sugars and fears of tariff changes resulted in heavy sales of the stock. The grangers were unpleasantly conspicuous for weakness on estimates of probable decreased earnings on account of the cur-rent low prices of farm products. London first cables came higher all around and reported advanced also in American stocks. This imparted a more cheerful tone previous to the opening of the local market. and furthermore a number of reports of railway traffic returns for December exhibiting increases for the most part also contributed to the hopeful sentiment in-spired. The market opened firm, and in the initial dealings advances were scored of 24 per cent. in Tobacco, 2 in New Jersey Central and 1011/2 in other leading stocks. The temper suddenly changed, however, and, on free selling by leading professional operators and their following and the uncovering of a great many stop orders, prices receded steadily under the influences noted prefacing this article. About midday a temporary and partial rally occurred, but the downward movement was soon resumed and gained full force in the last hour, when the market appeared to be entirely without support. The closing was at the lowest point of the day and the final sales showed

SOLD OFF A CENT FROM SATURDAY, REGAINING ONLY ONE-EIGHTH.

Government Crop Report Was Bearish, Resulting in Heavy Pounding -Provisions Firm and High.

day, the small visible decrease and the government crop report being powerful bearish factors and pounding the cereal down nearly a cent from Saturday's close. Corn and oats were both firm and active early, but eased off, while provisions opened strong and remained so, making material gains. The wheat market made a weak start, owing mainly to the report of the government showing the wheat crop to be 467,-000,000 bushels, or much more than generally expected. This caused pretty free selling by holders and during the first hour the price political matters abroad were still unsettled. The fact that the new loan was advertised for was also some assurance that inancial matters were getting into better shape. There was also a general belief that the visible would show a large decrease and the amount on ocean passage was 640,090 bushels less than a week ago. Several large operators began to show a leaning to the bull side and when this was discovered the crowd also turned in that direction and the price was quickly advanced %c from the low point. But there was liberal selling at the advance and the price started off some and when it became known that the deand when it became known that the decrease in the visible was only 116,000 bushels instead of 800,000 to 1,000,000 bushels as expected, the market became very heavy and before noon had gone off fully %c. May sold from 59%c early to 59%c up to 60%c, then down to 59% 59%c split. The market continued to weaken during the last hour and May sold off to 59c, or 1 cent below the close Saturday. There was some reaction, but it as not important, May closing at 59@59%c. Corn was strong, helped largely by the fact that the government report of the crop was smaller than had been generally expected and there was not much disposition to sell short, while the covering was more active than for some time. May sold early at 28%c, advanced gradually to 28%c, but eased off to 28%c. The market got quite weak during the last hour and May sold off to 2814@28%c, split, and made practically no recovery.

In oats shorts were buying freely. The government report of the total crop of cats for the year was 824,444,000 bushels. The general estimate was for about 900,000,000 to 925,000,000 and firmness resulted. May opened from 191/se to 191/se, sold off to 19, up to 191/se, back to 191/se and closed at 191/se/191/se Saturday's final quotation was 1914c. The provision market was active strong and wound up at about the best prices of the day.

Hogs-Receipts were decidedly below the estimate and firm cables were factors. A PLEA OF INSANITY ENTERED BY THE MURDERER'S ATTORNEYS.

Jury Will Not Be Obtained Till To-Day-The Main Prosecuting Witness in Court.

Alonzo Rooker, who murdered his wife by cutting her throat, then attempted to kill Emma Pees, his wife's friend, and afterward slashed his own throat with a razor, is on trial for his life in the Criminal Court The details of the killing of Mrs. Rooker in her own home, near the City Hospital, Sept. 9, 1895, are well known to the reading public. The case began yesterday morning, but liti! progress was made during the day. Rooker's attorneys, Kealing & Hugg and William Robertson, entered a special plea of insanity for their client, and the defense is to be conducted on that ground Rooker was accompanied to the court room by his father, an aged and broken man. Father and son sat side by side during the day. The accused man apparently took but littie interest in the proceedings. He is a slender man of dark complexion, about thirty-five years of age. He has keen, black eyes and a heavy dark mustache. He wore a collar, which hid the ragged scar on his neck, which he inflicted with his own hand.

Mrs. Emma Pees, who barely escaped with her life, was in the court room all day. She sat with her husband on the first row. She is a stylishly-dressed, attractive-looking woman, ageu about twenty-five She wore a gauze veil, which failed to hide the deep cut extending across her right cheek. Mrs. Pees will be the prin-cipal witness for the State. At 5 o'clock yesterday evening the jury had not been selected. But five members of the regular panel occupied the box, and over half of the members of the special venire of fifty had been called and dismissed. The court officials do not think a jury will be secured before noon to-day. Joseph Hollingsworth, of Pike township, was one of those called to the box in the afternoon. Mr. Hollingsworth has lived in Marion county for seventy-six years, and has never served on a jury. He was rejected. All of the men called were closely questioned by the attorneys for the State as to their experience with insane persons. They were asked if they had ever taken special notice of persons afflicted with the poor farm or the insane hospital. The court room was crowded all day, but the half-dozen bailiffs on duty kept the best Philadelphia North American. The annual statement of the condition of the funds of the Girard estate, which has just been completed by Superintendent Kirkpatrick, shows the same flourishing condition of affairs that the people have become accustomed to witnessing under the able management of the estate of the great philanthropist. The total invested capital in the residuary fund for the maintenance and extension of the college, which is now educating 1,524 pupils, is $14,921,828, which includes the college buildings and grounds, city real estate, real estate in Schulkill and Columbia counties, Pennsylvania, city loans and bonds and mortgages. The value of all these is approximated either by estimate or assessment. The cash receipts for the year amounted to $1,588,745 from rents and loyalties, and the expenditures were $1,577,268.62, of which $513,255.87 was for the maintenance of the college, and there was a cash balance on hand on Dec.

How to Fold Your Money.

Philadelphia Press. There is prevalent a superstition in regard to the manner in which money should be placed in the purse. Bills of any denomination must never be cramped any which way into a pocket-book, but to insure luck must be carefully turned and folded toward one's self, and then creased lengthwise. This accomplished, the superstition is that plenty and prosperity will follow.
